VIOLIN RECITAL TO BE GIVEN

The violin department of the Torrance branch of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music will present pupils in a recital to be given at the American Legion club-house tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Alice Peterson is the instructor in the violin department. Pupil pupils of Miss Bernadine Schipper will assist on the program, as well as Blanche Jean Hubler of the dramatic arts department of the Los Angeles school. The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

CLARKSONS WILL RETURN SOON

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clarkson, who have been touring European countries for the past few months, will be glad to hear that they are now on their way home and expect to arrive in Torrance soon.

Word was received yesterday from the Clarksons at Jasper National Park, where they stopped while enroute across Canada, that they planned to leave for Vancouver last Saturday, then start for Torrance via Seattle and San Francisco.

Hospital Notes

It is reported today at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial Hospital that the condition of Mrs. Yvonne Muro, who was seriously injured August 3 when she was struck by an automobile asserted to have been driven by Mrs. Berz, of 25619 South Normandie avenue, Harbor City, is regarded as very serious. Mrs. Muro sustained numerous severe fractures and has made a very slow recovery since the accident.

There were only two new arrivals at the hospital during the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffert, 510 Agate street, Redondo, were presented with a fine baby boy on August 24. Mr. and Mrs. Roome, 708 Vincent Park, Redondo, added a pretty baby girl to their family on the same day.

Mrs. Catherine Ulrich, age 52, of 515 South Catalina avenue, is confined at the hospital with a fractured hip, sustained when she slipped on a waxed floor at her home this week.

Hospital attaches reported that Mrs. Minnie Wright's condition is regarded as particularly grave today. Mrs. Wright, who lives at 1724 East Sixth street, Los Angeles, is suffering from infection of the face.

Stepping into a bucket in the dark had a very unfortunate aftermath this week for James Ogle, 535 Pier avenue, Hermosa. He is confined at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital with an injured hip.

It is reported today that Charles Delight, of 1151 Walnut street, Gardena, will soon be able to return home following an operation at the hospital this week.

RELIEF SOCIETY TO HAVE CLOTHING SALE TOMORROW

The Torrance Relief rooms at 1803 Cabrillo avenue will be open for the sale of clothing all day tomorrow. Anyone having clothes to give to the Society is asked to call 72-M to notify the Society, and a call will be made for the articles.

SAN JUAN, (UP)—Four ragged "wild men" living near here were investigated by police. They were found to be Filipinos, out of work and forced to live in a cave.

HI SCHOOL HI LIGHTS

By MURIEL BELL

Lola Cokley returned last week from Ventura, where she spent a week. She visited Lucy Ray Perry, who used to reside here. Lola has also spent several weeks in Oakland and San Francisco with her parents.

Harold Stevenson has had a successful summer. As delivery boy for Fess groceries, he visits many houses during a day where he gives service with a smile.

Sleepy is a popular idea among the boys, including Lee Herring. He finds that being telephone operator during the night at the C. C. M. O. doesn't let him sleep as much as he would like. Some people phone at the most unreasonable hours, he claims.

Swimming, a winner hale, dancing, card games, and more cats, combined in one afternoon and evening give a grand and glorious entertainment for a party. Betty McIntyre gave such a party last week at her home at the C. C. M. O. The guests were Dorothy Myers, Norma Rappaport, Molyd Holland, Clifford Crane, Joe and Earl Tavan, Rita Lister, Dorothy Esham, Ethel Ward, Dot Hanson, Kenneth Call, Ralph Daugherty, Parke Montague, Bob Hanson, Helen Hambrick, Susie Bell, Charles Kissinger, and the hostess, Betty McIntyre. Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Ward and Mrs. Tavan were chaperones.

Wilson Page had the experience of being a guardian last week. He went to Big Pine with the Boy Rangers to help Mr. Moore keep the youngsters out of mischief.

Clita Neville has been having such a grand time at Long Beach that she only comes home once a week to wash her face. She is staying with Mrs. Fox and won't be home until school opens.

Yosemite National Park had an some of its noted guests last week. Glen, Gene, Margaret, Marjorie, and Mrs. Tolson, John and Mr. and Mrs. Young. At the end of the week these campers were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Elschen.

Leta West has been out of town for a week, visiting her grandmother. The rest of the summer she hunted for something to do, but didn't find anything.

Kenneth Fess has been helping Harold Stevenson with the admiration of the ladies by his winkle smile. He also took a great part in the election Tuesday by distributing hand bills.

Rudy Huber has found a job, and is working very hard. He is at the Malibu Road store and works as hard as he can finding something to do.

Mrs. N. A. Leake returned Sunday evening from Bear Lake, Idaho, where she was the guest of friends for three weeks.

Former Rector Here Succumbs at La Crescenta

Rites for Father Tom Swift Will Be Held Tomorrow At Cathedral

Rev. Thomas F. Swift, rector of the Christ Episcopal church here from 1922 to 1926, died early Tuesday morning at La Crescenta where he was rector of the "Tuning" church. "Father Tom," as he was familiarly known here and in Wilmington where he was former pastor of St. John's Episcopal church, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Margaret C. Swift; a daughter, Mrs. Edna Keim, of Los Angeles; and a son, Dr. Edward Swift of Glendale.

Services will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at St. Paul's Cathedral, Sixth and Figueroa streets, Los Angeles. Interment will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Glendale.

It is said of Father Tom Swift that he never failed to carry in his service prayers, thoughts for those in sorrow and sickness. He visited the hospitals in the Bay district, bringing flowers from his own garden to cheer those who needed such friendly visits and in all his faithful service, was devoted to relieving those who needed spiritual help. His memory will be cherished by his many old-time friends in Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen returned Monday from a several day's trip to Morgan Hills.

Officers Arrest 3 on Gambling Charge

Three men were arrested on charges of gambling early Friday morning by Officers Shumaker and Ashton who reported they discovered the men in a dice game behind the Columbia restaurant, C. Contreras, 28, who gave his address as the restaurant, was released on $50 bail to appear with the other two tomorrow for trial before Police Judge Rippey.

Fete Majin, 23, 749 Border avenue, and A. J. Fitzhugh, 53, Erwin Hotel, were lodged in jail in default of failure to put up the required bail.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING POSTPONED TO SEPTEMBER

Regular meeting of the Methodist Brotherhood, which is scheduled for the first Monday evening of each month, has been postponed until the second Monday evening of September. Final arrangements for the speaker and program are being completed this week.

GOLD IS ONLY BREW

BELOIT, Wis. (UP)—Beloit police and deputies investigating the mysteries of a newly discovered cave here found that visions of pirates gave way to bootleggers and the musty smell of treasure chests was replaced by the penetrating fumes of hidden brew.

OLD FAMILY CUSTOM

DETROIT (UP)—It's an old family custom, so Elmer H. Favor will marry Elsie Boos here soon. His brothers, Alvin and Clarence, are already married to Elsie's sisters, Catherine and Regina. They will all live next door to each other.

Combined Orchestras Will Give Concert

The Gardena-Torrance combined orchestras will give a sacred concert at the Christian church, located on Engracia at Arlington, next Sunday evening, August 31, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Several marches, both sacred and secular, will be played.

One feature will be the singing of the "Holy City" by Mr. Herman Kennedy, of Gardena, with orchestra accompaniment. There will be several vocal numbers also. Mr. Floyd Peters, of Gardena, is the director and Mrs. Percy Jamison of Torrance is the accompanist.
